

Week of Health and Innovation - WHINN

Field: Health and Health Care Dates: 9-11 October 2018 Location: Odense, Denmark

Denmark is considered a Euopean pioneer in the field of health care. At the WHINN conference, current developments in the fiel of health technology and innovation will be presented. Topics include:

Empowerment of patients
Use of patient data in health care
Communication with patients

Role of relatives

Integration of health technologies and innovations in organizations, communities, hospitals

Health technology for patients and relatives as an integral part of everyday life

Inspiration and knowledge transfer: Impact of global leaders, companies and organizations on health technology and the innovation landscape.