
Symposium National Contact Point Life Sciences

Fields: Life Sciences and Cross-Cutting Issues

Date: 21 November 2018

Location: Cologne

Organizer: National Contact Point (NKS) Life Sciences

The "NKS-L Symposium 2018" will take place in Cologne on 21 November 2018. In addition to experienced experts, speakers from the European Commission will be discussing key issues and relevant horizontal topics in the forthcoming work programme and an outlook on the forthcoming EU research framework Horizon Europe will be given.

The event will provide you with information on the current Life Sciences programmes under Horizon 2020 ("Health" and "Bioeconomy" as well as "Biotechnology"). In addition, plenary lectures and a panel discussion, workshops and theme sessions will provide interactive exchange opportunities.

Already in the run-up to the event, the NKS Life Sciences offers the possibility of networking with potential partners via a form or the event page.
