
Week of Health and Innovation - WHINN

Field: Health and Health Care

Dates: 9-11 October 2018

Location: Odense, Denmark

Denmark is considered a European pioneer in the field of health care. At the WHINN conference, current developments in the field of health technology and innovation will be presented. Topics include:

- Empowerment of patients
- Use of patient data in health care
- Communication with patients
- Role of relatives
- Integration of health technologies and innovations in organizations, communities, hospitals
- Health technology for patients and relatives as an integral part of everyday life
- Inspiration and knowledge transfer: Impact of global leaders, companies and organizations on health technology and the innovation landscape.